PLACE OBTAINED 25X1  DATE OF CONTENT prior to April 1952  25X1  DATE OF CONTENT prior to April 1952  REFERENCES  PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 6 1792)  REMARKS  25X1  1. In April 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were erected in the large area around the internee camp in Jarsew-Sluzeviec.  believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Korea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kink, of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Irison, while the other was said by similar itums.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bobsterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were		MARINE LUSTAL	lation in Warsaw	56-377
DATE OF CONTENT prior to April 1952  REFERENCES  PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 8 1965)  REMARKS  25X1  25X1			The state of the s	Bu sa
DATE OF CONTENT. prior to April 1952  25X1  25X1  AMERICAN S.  25X1  1. In April 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were cracted in the large area around the internee camp in Jarsaw-ulurewice.  Pelieved that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named force.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicle and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Moketow Frison, while the other was said by similar itums.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Dobaterska Streetonisted of three four-story buildings two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Folice School. This designation was also frequently used by worken there. The building was often inspected by militing for the Limistry of Security was designated by 293 and No 294 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Weaykn as an anner to a building with already existed. It was designated as Limisterstwa Begpieczenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.	EVALUÁTION	25X1	DI ACE ODTAINED	25 Y 1
REFERENCES  PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (MO. 8 1978)  1. In April 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were erected in the large area around the internee camp in Mansaw-sluwswise.  Pelieved that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named fibres.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicle and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Frison, while the other was said by similar itums.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Dobaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Folice School. This designation was else frequently used by worken there. The building was often inspected by militie officers and civilians of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Xrasickiego and Weaykn as an annex to building who already existed. It was designated as Hinisterstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.		was and to		ZJAI
In April 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were erected in the large area around the internee camp in Warsaw-Juzewiec.  25X1.  25X1.  25X1.  25X1.  25X1.  25X1.  1. In April 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were erected in the large area around the internee camp in Warsaw-Juzewiec.  believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eurea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Eukotow Trison, while the other was said by similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Streetonists of three four-story buildings two of which were seni-finished in late Lay 1951. That the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by worken there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civillians of Security was designated to 203 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Weyka as an anner to a building which already existed. It was designated as Linisterstwa Bespicezenstwa. UB and MBT officers worked in the old building.	DATE OF COM	ALENT DETOT TO	The second section of the sect
PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 8 1978)  1. In April, 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were erected in the large area around the internee camp in Tarsaw-Bluzewiec.    believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was need large.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicle and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kind, of food, textiles and tools needed in the ecomp and the Moloctow Trison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces degot and to contain similar itims.  3. Building No 204, located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Streetonsisted of three four-story buildings two of which were semi-finished in late Log 1951.    that the installation was designated as Folice School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians of Security was designated to 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Weyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Linisterstwa Bespiczenstwa. UB and KBV officers worked in the old building.			DATÉ PREPARED 5	December 1952
1. In April 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were erected in the large area around the internee camp in Jarsaw-Bluzewiec.    believed that a large military instellation was under construction there. The installation was named Eddered.    Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kind, of food, textiles and tools needed in the cemp and the Mokotow Trison, while the other was said by in the cemp and the Mokotow Trison, while the other was said by similar it.ms.    Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Streetonisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late lay 1951.	REFERENCES	THE PARTY OF THE P
1. In April 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were erected in the large area around the internee camp in Jansaw-Sluzewiec.  believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Ebrea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with remps for vehicle and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Eokotow Irison, while the other was said by similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluge and Bobsterska Streeconsisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951. Itat the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militie officers and civillians.  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasioklego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespicezenstwa. UB and KB? officers worked in the old building.	PAGES 2	ENCLOSURE	S (NO. & TYPE)	ta 🗓
1. In April 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were erected in the large area around the internee camp in Jansaw-Sluzewiec.  believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Ebrea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with remps for vehicle and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Eokotow Irison, while the other was said by similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluge and Bobsterska Streeconsisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951. Itat the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militie officers and civillians.  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasioklego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespicezenstwa. UB and KB? officers worked in the old building.	REMARKS		TERREMET ON
1. In April 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were erected in the large area around the internee camp in Farsaw-Sluzewiec.  believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Korea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with remps for vehicle and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Moktow Irison, while the other was said by similar itums.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dlugs and Bohsterska Streeconsisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951. that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militie officers and civillians.  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespicezenstwa. UB and KBY officers worked in the old building.			THE MENT WE WILL	The second secon
1. In April 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were erected in the large area around the internee camp in Tarsew-Bluzewiec.  believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was smed Errea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicle and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kink of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Eokotow Trison, while the other was said by similar items.  3. Building No 204 cleated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Bluga and Bobaterska Stree consisted of three four-story buildings two of which were seni-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Vezyka as an anner to a building which already existed. It was designated as Limisterstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.			and one fall to the
1. In April 1952, numerous low wooden buildings were erected in the large area around the internee camp in Warsaw-Sluzewiec.  believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eurea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicle and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Wokotow Frison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar itums.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings two of which were send-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militie officers and civilians.  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Linisterstwa Bespieczenstwa. UE and KEV officers worked in the old building.			The team of the second
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 253 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Mrasickiego and Weeyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespicezenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.		25X1	and the state of t	* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 203 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 203 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 253 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiege and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 253 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiege and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 253 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiege and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 203 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 253 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiege and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 203 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eurea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951. that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Nezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Behpicczenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eurea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951. that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Nezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Behpicczenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Ebrea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951. that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians.  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bempieczenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Ebrea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951. that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Mrasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespicezenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Ebrea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951. that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Mrasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespicezenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 253 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Mrasickiego and Weeyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespicezenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eurea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicle and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Streetonsisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951. that the installation was designated as Folice School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians.  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespicezenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 253 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Mrasickiego and Weeyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespicezenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.			•
believed that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 coated in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 253 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Mrasickiego and Weeyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespicezenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.		T- 443 4050
pelieved that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Lokotow Trison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Hinisterstwa Beapicezenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.	- 1 •	In Mpril 1952	. Dumerous low wooden build pelieved that a large military installation was under construction there. The installation was named Eprea.  2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Lokotow Trison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Streetonsisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Hinisterstwa Beapieczenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.			, mamor our wooden burn	aings were erected in
2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Streetonsisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951. that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians.  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespiczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.		the large are	a around the internee camp	in Tarsaw-Tluzawies
2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Trison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings two of Which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.		the large are	a around the internee camp	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec.
2. Two sheds, each about 150 meters long, with ramps for vehicles and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Trison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.		the large are	a around the internee camp believed that a large mile	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec.
and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Trison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bonaterska Streetonsisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians.  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bempieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	·	the large are	a around the internee camp believed that a large mile	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec.
and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Trison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bonaterska Streetonsisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians.  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bempieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.		the large are	a around the internee camp believed that a large mile	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec.
and spur tracks were seen at the site. One was used as a storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the Mokotow Trison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bonaterska Streetonsisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians.  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bempieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.		under constru	a around the internee camp believed that a lar e mil ction there. The installat	in Tarsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea.
storehouse for all kinds of food, textiles and tools needed in the camp and the mokotow Trison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bonaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Trior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ninisterstwa Benpieczenstwa. UE and KB7 officers worked in the old building.		under constru  Two sheds, ea	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installatech about 150 meters long.	in Jarsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicles
the camp and the Mokotow Prison, while the other was said by to be an armed forces depot and to contain similar items.  3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late May 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Prior to December 1951, a large new building for the Ministry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UE and KET officers worked in the old building.		under constru  Two sheds, ea	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installatech about 150 meters long.	in Jarsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicles
3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bonaterska Streetonsisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KE7 officers worked in the old building.		under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installatech about 150 meters long, where seen at the site.	in Jarsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicles One was used as a
3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bonaterska Streetonsisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bezpieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.		under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur tracistorehouse for	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installate ch about 150 meters long, when were seen at the site. It is all kinds of food.	in Jarsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicles One was used as a es and tools needed in
3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Boraterska Stree consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Berpieczenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installated about 150 meters long, which were seen at the site. It is all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison. While	in Jarsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicles One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by
3. Building No 204 located in the north section of the center of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Street consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Beapieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installated about 150 meters long, which was were seen at the site. It is all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison, while to be an armed forces dear	in Jarsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicles One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by
of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bonaterska Stree- consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Vezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Benpieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installated about 150 meters long, which was were seen at the site. It is all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison, while to be an armed forces dear	in Jarsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicles One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by
of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bonaterska Stree- consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Vezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Benpieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installated about 150 meters long, which was were seen at the site. It is all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison, while to be an armed forces dear	in Jarsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicles One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by
of the town at the intersection of Dluga and Bohaterska Stree- consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates chabout 150 meters long, which were seen at the site. It is all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Trison, while to be an armed forces deposited.	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Korea, with ramps for vehicles One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain consisted of three four-story buildings, two of which were semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates chabout 150 meters long, which were seen at the site. It all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison, while to be an armed forces deposited.	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle. One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain semi-finished in late Lay 1951.  that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates chabout 150 meters long, which were seen at the site. It all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison, while to be an armed forces deposited.	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle. One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town ar	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates chabout 150 meters long, which were seen at the site. It all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison, while to be an armed forces deposite the intersection of Dlugger the intersection of Dlugger the intersection of Dlugger the intersection of the content of the intersection of Dlugger the content of the co	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle. One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain etion of the center a and Bomaterska Stree
that the installation was designated as Police School. This designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town are consisted of	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates chabout 150 meters long, which were seen at the site. It all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Trison, while to be an armed forces deposite the intersection of Dluggethree four-story buildings.	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle. One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain etion of the center a and Bomaterska Stree designation was also frequently used by workmen there. The building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town are consisted of semi-finished	a around the internee camp believed that a large miliction there. The installation about 150 meters long, which were seen at the site. It all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison, while to be an armed forces deposite the intersection of Dluggethree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951.	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree two of which were building was often inspected by militia officers and civilians  4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town are consisted of semi-finished	a around the internee camp believed that a large miliction there. The installation about 150 meters long, which were seen at the site. It all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison, while to be an armed forces deposite the intersection of Dluggethree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951.	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree two of which were
4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the installar items	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates chabout 150 meters long, which were seen at the site. In all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison, while to be an armed forces deposite the intersection of Dlugget three four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951.	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree two of which were Police School, This
4. Frior to December 1951, a large new building for the Linistry of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town are consisted of semi-finished that the instances ignation was a semi-finished designation was	a around the internee camp believed that a large miliction there. The installation there. The installation there seen at the site. It is all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Trison, while to be an armed forces dependent of the intersection of Dlugatine four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951.  allation was designated as as also frequently used by	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain etion of the center a and Bomaterska Stree two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The
of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town are consisted of semi-finished that the instances ignation was a semi-finished designation was	a around the internee camp believed that a large miliction there. The installation there. The installation there seen at the site. It is all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Trison, while to be an armed forces dependent of the intersection of Dlugatine four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951.  allation was designated as as also frequently used by	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The
of Security was designated No 293 and No 297 and was located at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2.	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town are consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation was building was a semi-finished that the instance of the town are consisted of the town a	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates chabout 150 meters long, which was seen at the site. It all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Prison, while to be an armed forces defeated in the north seet the intersection of Dlugathree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951.  allation was designated as as also frequently used by often inspected by militia	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea.  with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by pot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town are consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation was building was a semi-finished that the instance of the town are consisted of the town a	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates chabout 150 meters long, which was seen at the site. It all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Prison, while to be an armed forces defeated in the north seet the intersection of Dlugathree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951.  allation was designated as as also frequently used by often inspected by militia	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea.  with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by pot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians
at the intersection of Krasickiego and Wezyka as an annex to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and KB7 officers worked in the old building.	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation we building was a frior to December 1 and	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installated has been at the site. The large milection the seen at the site. It is all kinds of food, textile the lackotow trison, while to be an armed forces defect the intersection of Dlugate in late lay 1951.  allation was designated as also frequently used by often inspected by militial moer 1951, a large new builting the section of the section of the section of the section of the section was designated as also frequently used by often inspected by militial moer 1951, a large new builting the section of the se	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea.  with ramps for vehicles One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by pot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry to a building which already existed. It was designated as Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation we building was a fire to December of Security was a semi-field that the semi-finished th	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installated has been at the site. The large milection the seen at the site. The large man armed forces define the large man armed forces define the intersection of Dlugate the intersection of Dlugate four-story buildings, in late lay 1951.  The large man armed forces define the intersection of Dlugate four-story buildings, in late lay 1951.  The allation was designated as as also frequently used by often inspected by militial more 1951, a large new built as designated to 253 and the design	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by pot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry 297 and was located Ministerstwa Bespieczenstwa. UB and MB7 officers worked in the old building.  25X1	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation we building was a fire to December of Security was a semi-field that the semi-finished th	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installated has been at the site. The large milection the seen at the site. The large man armed forces define the large man armed forces define the intersection of Dlugate the intersection of Dlugate four-story buildings, in late lay 1951.  The large man armed forces define the intersection of Dlugate four-story buildings, in late lay 1951.  The allation was designated as as also frequently used by often inspected by militial more 1951, a large new built as designated to 253 and the design	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by pot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry 297 and was located the old building.  25X1	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instadesignation was building was at the interse	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installated has been at the site. The large milection the seen at the site. It is all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison, while to be an armed forces defect the intersection of Dlugate the intersection of Dlugate the intersection of Dlugate four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951.  The allation was designated as also frequently used by often inspected by militial moments of the section of Krasickiego and Testing of the section of the se	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by pot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry 297 and was located ezyka as an anney
the old building.  25X1	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur trac storehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the insteadesignation was building was at the interset a building	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installated has been at the site. The large milection the seen at the site. It all kinds of food, textile the Mokotow Frison, while to be an armed forces denote the intersection of Dlugating the four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951.  allation was designated as also frequently used by often inspected by militial moments of Krasickiego and Westion of Krasickiego and Westion of Krasickiego and Westion already existed. It	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry of 297 and was located rezyka as an annex was designated as
25X1	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur traces torehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation we building was of Security was to a building Ministerstwall	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates of about 150 meters long, which already existed. It has been at the site. It has a same and forces defined the located in the north section of Dlugathree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951. It has a salso frequently used by often inspected by militia mber 1951, a large new built as designated to 203 and Hotelon of Krasickiege and which already existed. It bespieczenstwa. UB and KBT	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry of 297 and was located rezyka as an annex was designated as
	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur traces torehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation we building was of Security was to a building Ministerstwall	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates of about 150 meters long, which already existed. It has been at the site. It has a same and forces defined the located in the north section of Dlugathree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951. It has a salso frequently used by often inspected by militia mber 1951, a large new built as designated to 203 and Hotelon of Krasickiege and which already existed. It bespieczenstwa. UB and KBT	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry of 297 and was located rezyka as an annex was designated as
	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur traces torehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation we building was of Security was to a building Ministerstwall	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates of about 150 meters long, which already existed. It has been at the site. It has a same and forces defined the located in the north section of Dlugathree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951. It has a salso frequently used by often inspected by militia mber 1951, a large new built as designated to 203 and Hotelon of Krasickiege and which already existed. It bespieczenstwa. UB and KBT	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry of 297 and was located rezyka as an annex was designated as
	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur traces torehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation we building was of Security was to a building Ministerstwall	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates of about 150 meters long, which already existed. It has been at the site. It has a same and forces defined the located in the north section of Dlugathree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951. It has a salso frequently used by often inspected by militia mber 1951, a large new built as designated to 203 and Hotelon of Krasickiege and which already existed. It bespieczenstwa. UB and KBT	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry of 297 and was located rezyka as an annex was designated as
	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur traces torehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation we building was of Security was to a building Ministerstwall	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates of about 150 meters long, which already existed. It has been at the site. It has a same and forces defined the located in the north section of Dlugathree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951. It has a salso frequently used by often inspected by militia mber 1951, a large new built as designated to 203 and Hotelon of Krasickiege and which already existed. It bespieczenstwa. UB and KBT	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry of 297 and was located rezyka as an annex was designated as
	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur traces torehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation we building was of Security was to a building Ministerstwall	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates of about 150 meters long, which already existed. It has been at the site. It has a same and forces defined the located in the north section of Dlugathree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951. It has a salso frequently used by often inspected by militia mber 1951, a large new built as designated to 203 and Hotelon of Krasickiege and which already existed. It bespieczenstwa. UB and KBT	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry of 297 and was located rezyka as an annex was designated as
	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur traces torehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation we building was of Security was to a building Ministerstwall	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates of about 150 meters long, which already existed. It has been at the site. It has a same and forces defined the located in the north section of Dlugathree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951. It has a salso frequently used by often inspected by militia mber 1951, a large new built as designated to 203 and Hotelon of Krasickiege and which already existed. It bespieczenstwa. UB and KBT	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry of 297 and was located rezyka as an annex was designated as
	2. 3. 5X1	the large are under constru  Two sheds, ea and spur traces torehouse for the camp and similar items  Building No 20 of the town a consisted of semi-finished that the instance designation we building was of Security was to a building Ministerstwall	a around the internee camp believed that a large milection there. The installates of about 150 meters long, which already existed. It has been at the site. It has a same and forces defined the located in the north section of Dlugathree four-story buildings, in late Lay 1951. It has a salso frequently used by often inspected by militia mber 1951, a large new built as designated to 203 and Hotelon of Krasickiege and which already existed. It bespieczenstwa. UB and KBT	in Warsaw-Sluzewiec. itary installation was ion was named Eprea. with ramps for vehicle; One was used as a es and tools needed in the other was said by oot and to contain  etion of the center a and Bohaterska Stree; two of which were  Police School. This workmen there. The officers and civilians dding for the Linistry of 297 and was located rezyka as an annex was designated as

	Approved For Release 2003/08/12 : CIA-RDP82-00457R015600430005-1 25X1	430005-1 25X1
	-2-
25X1 1.	Comment. The prisoners' camps and large storage buildings in Warsaw-Sluzewiec were previously reported and are confirmed prior to April 1952.

COMPIDENTIAL,